Dear Mrs. Manley:

Received your letter of August 14th. I am enclosing slips for the games on August 28th and 30th. I have just received a notification from Gottlieb that you are going to play in Atlantic City on Wednesday, August 27th. This means that you would have the 25th, 26th, and 29th open. Is this correct?

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "W. A. Leuschner". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
